What We're Learning Next Week...

Inquiry into Integrated Literacy

Next week we will continue to read The Recess

- Queen by Alexis O'Neill. We will be analyzing characters, determining the central message, and comparing/contrasting this story with A Fine, Fine School that we read a few weeks ago.
- We will also continue writing opinions about texts and then supporting those opinions.

Inquiry into Words Their Way

- Thank you for practicing these words with your child! Please make sure to sign the Words Their Way paper in their folder.

Inquiry into Integrated Math

- Next week we will finish up Unit 4. We will have our Unit review and our test. We will be trying the online test for Unit 4 instead of a paper-pencil version!

Inquiry into Transdisciplinary Themes

- During the next two weeks we will be learning about our next unit of inquiry, How We Organize Ourselves. We will inquire about what we already know about teams and different kinds of teams (not just sports!). We will do some team building activities where we can see what roles people have in a team.
