What We're Learning Next Week...

Inquiry into Integrated Literacy

- Next week we will be reading a book on BookFlix called Kids Can Dance! This story will give us the opportunity to learn more about how individuals express themselves through dance! We will use the text to review contractions and main idea/key details, as well as introduce the difference between fact and opinion.

Inquiry into Words Their Way

- Due to our short week for conferences we will NOT be having Words Their Way next week!

Inquiry into Integrated Math

- Next week we will review Topics 1-8 and take the Topics 1-8 assessment.

Inquiry into Transdisciplinary Themes

- We will finish our unit of inquiry, "How We Express Ourselves" and reflect on what we have learned during this unit.
